You host events like our famous wine & cheese nights, guide daytrips to other cities/towns, organise sporty activities on the beach, live music sessions, creative workshops during the afternoon, forest walks, discos, and anything else you can think of. You bring those summer camp vibes to the camp and make sure that all groups and solo-travellers feel part of the Star Surf community.

Among your responsibilities are

- Creating a fun atmosphere at the camp – you connect the different people, and organise activities that give guests the opportunity to mingle and meet others;
- Tailor the weekly programme of activities to suit the wide range of customers, from students to families, from creatives to sport-addicts, and from quiet readers to dancy party peepz.
- Create the weekly entertainment schedules, and prepare posters, sign-up lists, vouchers etc.
- Organise and arrange weekly creative workshops, e.g. 'Make your own skateboard'; Water colouring workshops, Making macramé plant hangers, making bracelets, tie-dye workshops, etc.; Make use of the many creative skills that you can already find within our own team!;

- Manage the bar team, in particular what shifts they will work to complement entertainment.
- Monitor and report on your weekly spent (i.e. scan your receipts and report on spread sheet)

- Access guest information from online server
- Review and adopt guest feedback in your weekly planning;

As entertainment manager, it's very important to find the right balance between entertaining and being a responsible and reliable member of the team. It's important that entertainment is creative and not only centred around alcohol and nightlife. As entertainment manager, you are also a key part of management team, and are expected to act with such level of responsibility and accountability. You report directly to the camp manager. In many of your responsibilities, you need to collaborate closely with the other departments to make the schedules work (e.g. kitchen, surf, head of team, reception). We are looking for a real team player and someone who is able to plan and communicate clearly. Also, although this description sets out your main tasks, camp life comes with many unexpected turns. This means your workload will fluctuate throughout the weeks, and sometimes you are expected to adopt additional tasks.
