

Job Description

Camp Reporter

About Star Surf Camps

Star Surf Camps started with one small surf camp in the summer of 2010 in Moliets in the Southwest of France. Over the last 10 years, we have opened more surf, Yoga and SUP camps in Spain and the Canary Islands.

For this summer, we are recruiting staff for two camp locations; Moliets, France and Oyambre, Spain. In both camps, guests experience the surf and yoga lifestyle whilst camping in our beloved tipi tents. Both locations accommodate guests in our standard shared tipis, as well as our upgraded tipis that provide that little extra comfort (e.g. electricity, light, bed frames). Moliets is our largest camp location, with the main camp (~150 guests) and the surf & yoga (deluxe) camps (~70 guests) located on separate plots on a camping site in the pine forest approx. 20 mins walk from the beach. Oyambre is our slightly smaller camp (~120 guests at peak) where our regular and deluxe guests come together in a shared social space. This camp is located on a camp site, 10 mins walking from the beach. Both camps offer lively entertainment throughout the week, incl. wine & cheese nights, day trips to other towns, and sporty activities.

About the Camp Reporter Role

- Dates: Moliets: Mid May - End of September; Oyambre: Early June - late September (must be available for entire period)
- Minimum age: 22 years
- Languages: English + 1 other language preferred
- EU drivers license essential: No

Your Tasks & Responsibilities

As our photographer and social media guru, you are the person who records the experiences of the week and shares these with our guests and the social media. You are someone who has got the equipment and experience to take photographs of people's experiences, edit these photographs if needed, and share them with guests and followers. You are someone who doesn't shy away from writing about these experiences in a fun, friendly and engaging manner.

Your social media contribution helps to give future guests an understanding of what our camp looks like, and what happens at our camp on a daily basis. This also means that for our daily Instagram stories, we aren't looking for slick edited versions of the camp, but a realistic reflection of what the camp experience is about.

Among your responsibilities are:

- Photographing the camp activities, including ensuring you have taken photographs during surf lessons of each surf group, during the social evening activities or afternoon workshops, and during the weekly day trips;
- Upload and share the photographs with our guests via social media on a weekly basis;
- On a daily basis you share photo and video experiences at the camp on the social media, e.g. through Instagram story, Facebook etc.;
- You write 3 short blogs per week to be posted on our website and social media platforms;

Please note, you'll be working at the camping site, which means that infrastructure isn't always as great as we'd like it to be, and use of the internet for uploading could require patience at times. For sharing social media stories, we expect you to use your own equipment and data, but for sharing the larger files with guests, camp internet will be available. We also expect you to bring your own photographing equipment. As Photographer & Social Media guru, you'll report directly into the Camp Manager. Your working hours fluctuate, depending on bet conditions to photograph and when activities take place throughout the week. Nonetheless, there should also be plenty of time to enjoy the camp life!

Key characteristics we are looking for:

Hard-working, Sociable, Creative, Friendly, Hospitable, Flexible, Responsible, Fun, Team-player, Eye for detail, Good with computer and editing software, Good writing skills, Conscious of Brand expression through social media.

- ▯ Camp Reporter Moliets - You are responsible for photographing and running social media at our main camp in France, which hosts approx. 150 guests/wk at peak in our main camp and 70 guests/wk in the Surf & Yoga camp.
